News

With "Biology, Baby!" the Honeyclub released its second EP on March 05. Conceptually following the first EP "Chemistry, Baby!", which was released in September 2020, the Honeyclub presented five new, fresh rock'n'roll tracks in a contemporary style.

The new single of the Honeyclub is called "Get Your Kicks". A driving rock'n'roll song, which in some moments reminds of greats like David Bowie or Marc Bolan. With an uncompromising production, the club expands its repertoire with a catchy love song that sprays pheromones and makes the hips swing. With "Get Your Kicks", the club stays true to its mission to convey joie de vivre and a good feeling. The club's new single is rock'n'roll in its purest form.
